

Choose the correct words

Homophones are words which sound alike but have different meanings.

For example "He rode down the road on his horse".
Can you choose the correct words from the boxes?

Victor the night/knight galloped into the wood/would.
His hare/hair blew/blue in the wind as the whether/weather turned stormy and it began to reign/rain. He had come to meet/meat the vane/vain and greedy King who reigned/rained over the kingdom.
The King stood in a clearing wearing an enormous crown full of blew/blue sapphires.

As soon as Victor arrived the King could not weight/wait to tell him about his money and power.
Victor looked at the King and smiled "You do not/knot need to have money and power to be rich "
he said "you can be rich in many other ways/weights."